LIBRARY NEWS

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

International Women's Day is celebrated on March 8 to globally celebrate the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women.

The Isaac Region has been home to many, many inspirational women over the decades – pioneer women who worked beside their husbands to establish successful cattle and sheep stations; rural mothers who joined the Isolated Children's Parents Association to ensure the educational needs of geographically isolated children are met; and rural women in the Queensland Country Women's Association who work to improve the lives of women and families in rural, regional and remote areas of Queensland. The Isaac Libraries has many books in its collection about inspirational women, both fiction and non-fiction.
